The Oenologist

Panos Zouboulis

Born in Athens, Zouboulis is one of the first oenologists of his generation, he studied food technology in Athens and then pursued his studies in oenology at the University of Bordeaux, while he later worked at several châteaux in France. With almost forty years of experience and presence in the field of wine and counseling wines in Greece and abroad, Zouboulis is a specialist in organic and biodynamic cultivation of vines and olives. His true passion lies in rare and unique vines in the world, which remain unspoiled and intact from the phylloxera catastrophe. A true pioneer and perfectionist, he works today as a Consultant Oenologist in Greece and Argentina, while many of his creations have received major distinctions.

The Wine List

Only Greek Wines!

Our list includes only wines from Greek vineyards, both indigenous, century-old Greek wine grapes and international varieties, grown on Greek terroirs by the country's most prestigious winemakers. Our wines complement the restaurant's culinary journey from Crete to Cyclades, the Peloponnese and Northern Greece, offering guests a glimpse of each geographic region, along with the climate and the soil which form its' winemaking identity.

Santorini vineyards represent few of the very rare and unique vines in the world, some of them tracing back to 400 year old roots. Due to the special nature of their soil, pumice stone and volcanic earth, the ungrafted vines remain unspoiled and intact from the phylloxera catastrophe of the 20th century.

The Athenian House currently owns one of the largest vintage collections of Santorini wines, with rare bottles of assyrtiko, nychteri, aidani & mavrotragano from the most renown wineries on the island. Mineral, complex white wines mingle with dry, dense reds from scorched Santorini volcanic earth.

Whether you try our flight journeys through Greece or experiment on a rare vintage Santorini bottle, we wish you an unforgettable wine tasting experience!

WINE FLIGHTS 75 ml per glass

Selected wine flights offer an amazing wine tasting for those who cherish an exclusive wine tour around Greece or Santorini Island.

A JOURNEY THROUGH GREECE

Try three indigenous Greek varieties, transcending the freshness of 35 jasmynes, peaches and lemon groves and the sensuality of the mediterranean character. Three crisp white wines to celebrate the essence of Greek Summer.

MOSCHOFILERO

Pink-skinned, aromatic grape grown mainly on Greece's Peloponnese peninsula, producing Mantinea, a fresh, light and floral white wine.

Our proposal:

Moschofilero, Tselepos, "Blanc de Gris", P.D.O Mantinea, 2022

MALAGOUZIA

White grape rediscovered in the late 60's in Mainland Greece, producing a highly aromatic white wine, with sensual flower aromas, jasmine and lemon blossoms.

Our proposal:

Malagouzia, Markou, "Malagouzia", P.G.I Attiki, 2022

VIDIANO

Noble ancient grape from Crete, producing a fresh crisp wine, with oaky streaks and peachy aromas.

Our proposal:

Vidiano, Douloufakis, "Aspros Lagos", P.G.I Crete, 2022

HOMMAGE A SANTORINI

Choose three volcanic varieties, amidst a collection of rare collectors' or last 67 bottles of vintage Santorini wines from the best wineries on the island.

ASSYRTIKO

The most famous Santorini white grape variety, gives a very dry, mineral, almost saline white wine, which embodies the volcanic soil of its birthplace. Assyrtiko has undoubtedly earned the role of Greek ambassador, as the superstar of Greek viticulture worldwide. Once tasted, it is never forgotten.

AIDANI

One of the oldest Aegean wine varieties, its more floral, aromatic and buttery character contrasts with the nature of assyrtiko. Aidani is also a salty volcanic wine, with an interesting aging potential. A vintage bottle of Aidani is to be enjoyed after dinner like a good Cognac.

NYCHTERI

This is the traditional feast wine of the island, cherished by locals for its dry white oaky flavors. It takes its name from "nychta"- night, because it was always pressed on the same night of its harvest. Like all Santorini whites, it can be enjoyed as a red wine, combined equally well with meat or fish dishes.
